

Opening prayer

Blessed Lord, you speak to us through the Holy Scriptures. Grant that we may hear, read, respect, learn, and make them our own in such a way that the enduring benefit and comfort of the Word will help us grasp and hold the blessed hope of everlasting life, given us through our Savior Jesus Christ.

Read Philippians 2:17-18

17 Even if I am to be poured out as a drink offering upon the sacrificial offering of your faith, I am glad and rejoice with you all. 18 Likewise you also should be glad and rejoice with me.

Review and Discussion Questions

1. Paul is not afraid of death because, for him to live is Christ and to die is, what?

2. Do these verses contain law, gospel, or both?

3. What is a "drink offering" in the Old Testament? What was unique about it?

4. In the Greek, this can mean that Paul himself is doing the pouring. How is this important for us to remember as Christians?

5. For the sake of what, will Paul eventually be Martyred?

6. Paul says to rejoice, not in his death but in what?

7. How does the devil have us in bondage? How are we set free from this?
