Notes:

*Regarding the ordering of the books, in the Old Testament the prophets have been placed closest to the history books in which the events occurred. In the New Testament the Gospels are spread out, and interspersed with the epistles.

Reading a chapter a day from each book will take you through the Old Testament in two-and-a-half years, the Psalms twice a year, and the New Testament one-and-a-half times a year.

Bonus: look at 2 Timothy 3:16 and 1 John 5:13

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name, Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever and ever. Amen.

Apostle's Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth,

And in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried. He descended into hell. The third day he rose again from the dead. He ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of God the Father almighty. From there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Christian Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.
