Welcoming the Unchurched

As our culture continues the slide towards secularization and we see the growth of the “nones” (those who have no faith at all), how does the church's voice welcome and teach those with no theological background? How do we practice hospitality? How do we catechize from ground zero? How do we set the arc of the Bible's story of redemption against all of the culture's story arcs of destruction? And how can the Lutheran Church share in the joy of the angels who are astonished over one sinner's repentance? We'll take up these topics and more in this Continuing Education class.
